

Free Class

Prepare for an FCC Amateur Radio (HAM) License

Be able to communicate locally and worldwide using affordable hand held, mobile and fixed station equipment.

Learn how radio receivers and transmitters work.

Learn how to use radios and computers to communicate on a worldwide basis.

Be able to provide emergency communications during disasters.

Join a group of like minded radio & operator aficionados.

Where: Cedarburg Police Station meeting room.

When: Six Saturday mornings from Sept. 8 thru Oct. 20, 2012

Text: ARRL Technician Class text available at Amateur Electronics Supply (AES) at 5500 Good Hope Road in Milwaukee.

Offered by: Ozaukee Radio Club -- Ozaukeeradioclub.org

Call to enroll: 262-377-6945